

POPULAR TALK ON SOFT-SKILL & PERSONALITY DEVELOPMENT

Organized by
Department of Zoology

Pub Kamrup College, Baihata Chariali, Kamrup

Resource Person: Dr. Seema Jyoti

Associate Professor, Dept. of Zoology, Mangaldai College, Darrang

Date: 25.06.2024

Venue: Zoology Dept., PKC

On 26.06.2024, Department of Zoology organized a talk on “Soft skill and Personality Development” for 4th semester (Honours) students. The programme was organized in the ZOO Room 2. The talk was delivered by our invited Resource person Dr Seema Jyoti, Associate Professor, Department of Zoology, Mangaldai College. Programme was attended by 40 students where distinguished speaker talked about soft skills and its various aspects, how soft skill is different from hard skills, also the importance of soft skill in personal and professional life-giving real-life instances to students and motivated students to develop new skills and she mentioned that any new skill can be developed and can be refined if it is followed continuously for a period of 21 days. Programme served as a platform to realize students the importance of soft skills in their life for continuous carrier growth. Department extends a heartfelt gratitude to Dr Seema Jyoti, Associate Professor, Dept of Zoology (Mangaldai College) for accepting our invitation and enriching our students with such a motivating talk.

Some glimpses from the session

