Program Name: SUDDEN VISIT TO THE SCHOOL OF THE ADOPTED VILLAGE

Date of the program: 29TH Nov, 2017

Venue: Kumnagar L P School, Mandakata, Bezara, Kamrup, Assam

Organised by NSS program officer, Pub Kamrup College

No. of participants: 22 students of the Kumnagar L P School along with the two teachers of that school.

A brief note on the program:

The teachers namely Dr. Kamal Sarma, Associate Professor, Dept of Zoology; Mr Mahananda Kumar Pathak, Associate Professor of the Dept of Mathematics and NSS Program Officer of the college Md. Ayez Ali, Associate Professor, Dept of Geography made a sudden visit to the concerned school to check the attendance of the students as well as the teachers of the school. It was found satisfactory and later on some recommendations were put forwarded to the teachers for enhancing their performance and building a congenial teaching learning environment where the students can heartily adept the school environment.
